Subject : Permission to organize a guest lecture by Rashmi Samant

Sir,

I write this letter to you as a request for permission to conduct a guest lecture by Rashmi Samant, first Indian Woman President-elect Of Oxford Student Union. At Oxford University, she goes to the Linacre College where she is doing a masters in science course in energy systems. She won a landslide victory in Oxford University Student Union elections and got elected as the President. In her manifesto, Samant had talked about decolonising and decarbonising the university space. She also talked about more inclusivity on the campus. She is also the General Secretary and co-founder of Oxford Aviation Society.

Rashmi Samant's guest lecture in college will be a beacon of inspiration, igniting the flames of curiosity and ambition within students, guiding them towards a path of excellence. His invaluable insights and experiences will serve as a compass, steering them through the challenges of their educational journey and beyond.

We believe that this event would not only be entertaining but also educational, contributing to the cultural awareness and engagement of our student body. Thank you for considering our request.

Yours sincerely,
Shreyas Mangesh Waykar
